

Aldersyde cottage 2.2.22

Ground floor, north room. On the 18th century inserted chimney is a bressummer containing 5 interconnecting circular punch marks 2cm long on the bevelled edge of the beam. In a number of places are roman numerals used by carpenters and builders when the house was constructed in the 16th century.

